

Hekate - Full moon working: Scrying, blessing and amulet work

You will need:

- A small mirror
- A moonstone
- Rainwater
- A bowl to fit them all
- A clearing incense (optional)

You will need to be outside, gathering the energy of the moon's light. It does not need to be completely visible, but you will need to be in a place that the moon's light will touch. Prepare your space with incense if need. Place your mirror at the bottom of the bowl, and pour the rainwater on top of it, this will be to amplify the energy using the reflective qualities of both water and mirror. Look into the bowl with the two in it, gather the reflection of the moon and gaze into it, allowing the moon's light to be reflected onto your face. Scry into it and give thanks to your ancestors, ask a question if you seek an answer. Place the moonstone on top of the mirror in the bowl and allow for the energy of the moon to be reflected onto the moonstone. Say out loud and into the working:

*Moon and water,
Mirror and Moonstone
Open my mind's eye to see;
As above and so below
The power is within me.*

Take out the stone and carry it with you to inspire your own natural intuition, save the water to use as a splash, or put it in a spray bottle for later use. You can add a few drops of essential oil that you find pleasing. Take the mirror and place it on your altar to gaze upon in the morning for your daily practice (a daily blessing you give yourself every day).
